

February 28, 2012 11:00 ET

Former Reality TV Star of "The Real Housewives of New York City" Jill Zarin, Opens Her Closet Doors and Reveals Her New Skweez Couture Line

ClosetFactory.com Partnered With Jill Zarin to Tell Her Closet Story

LOS ANGELES, CA--(Marketwire - Feb 28, 2012) - Jill Zarin, one of the most successful reality television stars, has recently unveiled her new body shapewear line, Skweez Couture. Jill designed this collection with busy women (such as herself) in mind who might not always have time to work out. Skweez Couture provides women with an immediate solution to smooth out certain areas of their bodies.

As a Reality TV star, designer, entrepreneur and mother, Jill Zarin is well known for being a master multi-tasker. Having done everything from designing home bedding, jewelry and now body shapewear lines to writing her first book, "Secrets of a Jewish Mother," Jill Zarin demonstrates that a woman can have both a strong career and a family. But for the busy mother, Reality TV star, and career woman came the big question – how does she keep her closet organized? Especially in light of the release of her body shapewear line? The answer for Jill was Closet Factory. "My previous custom closet was put together badly. The system did not work – everything was unorganized and it would make me so irritated. "Now, my life is better! Closet Factory re-configured my closets and now they seem so much bigger and organized," says Jill.

Closet Factory partnered with Jill to tell her Closet Story. Through photography, an interview, and exclusive video, Jill explains her storage needs and how Closet Factory helped her reach her goals. Closet Factory worked with Jill from design sketch through to installation. Closet Factory's designers consulted one-on-one with Jill to ascertain her wishes and custom manufacture her closet complete with bells and whistles including Lucite drawers, a pull out laundry basket, and valet rods. The result, in Jill Zarin's words, "Now my closet is a paradise for organization." About Closet Factory:

Closet Factory opened its doors in 1983 in California to provide people with custom closets, offices, entertainment centers, garage systems, pantries, bookshelves, and more. Beginning with a free, in-home closet design consultation, Closet Factory is dedicated to providing customers with truly custom organization systems. From kid's closets that use adjustable shelves and rods to grow as your child does, to clean and beautiful garages, Closet Factory designs unique, brilliant, and gorgeous systems to organize your life.

Contact Information

Media Contacts:

Adrienne Arieff
Email Contact
415 538 9363

Jason Mitchell
Email Contact
Arieff Communications
212 537 0552